

Buick Roadmaster Class at 2010 New England Concours d'Elegance

Hemmings Motor News recently announced special classes for the 2010 New England Concours d'Elegance – among them, a class devoted to Buick Roadmasters.

Held on the manicured Commons of Stratton Village in Stratton, Vermont, the three-day affair begins on Friday, July 16, 2010, with the popular Hemmings Rally. An all-makes car show will follow on Saturday and the event will culminate with the main concours event on Sunday, July 18.

If you own a finely restored or well-preserved original example of a Buick Roadmaster that you think should be considered, please send photographs, descriptions and contact information to: New England Concours, Attn: Richard Lentinello, P.O. Box 196, Bennington, Vermont 05201. Submissions and high-resolution digital images can also be sent electronically to rlentinello@hemmings.com, or to mlitwin@hemmings.com.

This class will be limited in size, and there will be no duplication of models, so please send in your requests as soon as possible. Invitations will be sent out in the spring!
